Conflict Minerals Letter to Customers

(FM-DEC-8-Conflict Minerals Letter to Customers Rev 3.0)

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

With respect to Future Metals LLC's compliance with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) rules, issued under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, relating to "conflict minerals", "Conflict minerals" are defined as:

- Columbine - Tantalite (Tantalum)
- Cassiterite (Tin)
- Wolframite (Tungsten)
- Gold

This is to confirm that Future Metals will be fully compliant with its obligations under the SEC rules regarding conflict minerals.

It is Future Metals' policy to buy and sell only products or materials that do not contain any conflict minerals from the Democratic Republic of Congo or these adjoining countries: Angola, Burundi, Central African Republic, Republic of Congo, Rwanda, South Sudan, Tanzania, Uganda and Zambia (collectively, "DRC"). Future Metals has implemented appropriate procedures and is taking due diligence to ensure this policy is fulfilled.

Based on our review of the products purchased from Future Metals and on the information that we have received from our suppliers concerning these products, Future Metals hereby certifies, to the best of its knowledge, based on its due diligence that:

All the products that Future Metals LLC sells either do not contain any conflict minerals or do not contain any conflict minerals that are from the DRC.
